

RESTORING CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNANCE ACT OF PENNSYLVANIA

- (1) It is the determination of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that Pennsylvania is not a “battlefield” subject to the “laws of war,” and that neither Congress nor the President can constitutionally apply the “laws of war” to any person in Pennsylvania, or citizen of Pennsylvania, who is not serving “in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger.”
- (2) Notwithstanding any treaty, federal, state, or local law or authority, enacted or claimed, including, but not limited to, an authorization for use of military force, national defense authorization act, or any similar law or authority enacted or claimed by Congress or the Office of the President, it is unlawful for any person to:
 - a. arrest or capture any person in Pennsylvania, or citizen of Pennsylvania, “under the law of war,” or
 - b. actually subject a person in Pennsylvania to “disposition under the law of war,” or
 - c. use deadly force “under the laws of war” against any person in Pennsylvania, or intentionally subject any citizen of Pennsylvania to targeted killing.
- (3) Section (2) does not prohibit the application of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), including military detention and trial, in “cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual service in time of War or public danger” to discipline service members who have violated the UCMJ and laws of war.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act, the terms “arrest,” “capture,” “detention under the law of war,” “disposition under the law of war,” and “law of war” are used in the same sense and shall have the same meaning as such terms have in the 2012 NDAA, Section 1021.
- (5) Any person in violation of this act shall be prosecuted under the Pennsylvania Criminal Code relating to, but not limited to, assault, kidnapping, and/or murder, as applicable.
